

CONFIDENTIAL

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Tuesday - 13 November 1973

Page 3

25X1

7. [REDACTED] Accompanied Bill Nelson, DDO, to a meeting with Senator Stuart Symington for the purpose of briefing him on [REDACTED]

25X1A

[REDACTED]
we could locate for him a copy of the Sloyan article on Helms which appeared recently in the Baltimore News American. I suggested to Symington he might also want to check with the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which I understood had considerable information [REDACTED] and the Senator is doing this.

25X1A

Later in the day, I called Kathy Nelson, in the office of Senator Symington, who had been present during our meeting with the Senator and informed her that [REDACTED]

25X1A

[REDACTED] I also gave her references to the Sloyan article and another article by Carl Rowan of 11 May 1973 which I thought the Senator might be interested in. I told her I would send her copies of these articles tomorrow morning.

25X1

8. [REDACTED] Received a call from Jim Calloway, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, regarding the case of a former Agency employee. I told Calloway that I was sure there was no chance of this man being reemployed by the Agency and I had no precise information on the status of his application for a position on the House Armed Services Committee staff although I understood he was a prime candidate for their current opening.

25X1

9. [REDACTED] Received a call from Al Tarabochia, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, who told me a Senator (whose name Jay Sourwine, of the Subcommittee staff, did not reveal to him) had asked for all information the Subcommittee could give him on [REDACTED] Tarabochia said that everything they had on [REDACTED]

25X1A

25X1A

I did not indicate to Tarabochia that I was aware of the fact that Senator Stuart Symington had made the request about [REDACTED] to Chairman Eastland earlier in the afternoon.

25X1A

CONFIDENTIAL